NOTICE OF INCREASE OF END-TERM DIVIDEND

SUMIDA CORPORATION hereby gives notice of CEO's decision of proposes the plan of increasing the end-term dividend for the 51st term. Approval by the Board of Directors is needed for the increase of end-term dividends, therefore, confirmation of the plan will be done at the meeting of February next year.

1. Reasons of Increasing End-term Dividend

It is company's mid-term and long-term policy to continue stable payment of dividends while substantiating internal reserve toward business expansion by positioning the return of earnings to shareholders linked with consolidated business results. In particular, the pay-out ratio of the dividend is set at 25-30% of consolidated net profit of the year.

Although the interim dividend has paid JPY15 per share, it is considered that end-term dividend should be increased into JPY25 per share from JPY10 in the previous term in response to support from shareholders.

2. End-term Dividend for the Period of January 1, 2005 – December 31, 2005

	Interim Dividend Per Share	End-term Dividend Per Share	Annual Dividend Per Share
Current Estimate	JPY 15	JPY 25	JPY 40
